

2010 MMEA Honors Composition Concert
5th Annual Michigan Music Conference
An In-Service for Music Educators
Devos Place and Amway Grand Plaza Hotel in Grand Rapids, Michigan

What is the MMEA Honors Composition Concert? The MMEA Honors Composition Concert is an outstanding event that provides an opportunity for students to compose and perform original music. It also provides a forum for the development of students as composers and performers. Composers, age kindergarten to 12th grade, submit original compositions and a team selects the compositions that will be performed at the Annual Michigan Music Conference.

How to apply: If you would like to submit your student(s) original music composition(s) for selection in the program that will be held on Saturday, January 23, 2010 at 1:00 p.m.
