

Michigan Music Education Association
Young Singers Choral Workshop
for west Michigan region
Saturday, November 3rd, 2018

Do you have children/students/choir members who just love to sing?!
MMEA is offering a great opportunity for singers in 3rd-6th grade to have a large group/choir experience with other eager singers from many other school districts on this side of the state!

This year's Young Singers Choral Workshop will be on Saturday, November 3rd, 2018 at Grandville United Methodist Church, 3140 Wilson Avenue, Grandville, 9:00 AM-12:00 PM.

We hope to have a hundred young singers there! We will work on three songs, and music will be provided!

Our guest clinician/conductor for the day will be Mr. Adam Wurst. Adam is the choir director at Allendale Middle School, where he has over 300 kids in six different choirs, grades 6-8!

The cost for this event is just $15 per student. You may bring 2 of your students or 20!

Please register your students before October 31st by going to:

<https://mmeamichigan.org/elementary-choral-festival/>

On the day of the workshop, teachers/students may check in at the Grandville United Methodist Church lobby beginning at 8:30 AM. The fun stuff will start promptly at 9:00 AM.

Parents may stay and watch, or visit the nearby Rivertown Crossings Mall.

Parents are invited to join us for a short “informance” at 11:45 AM.

Feel free to email me with any questions you may have concerning this event at mshepard@bcpsk12.net

Mark W. Shepard, Byron Center Public Schools